

CATALINA ISLAND
CONSERVANCY

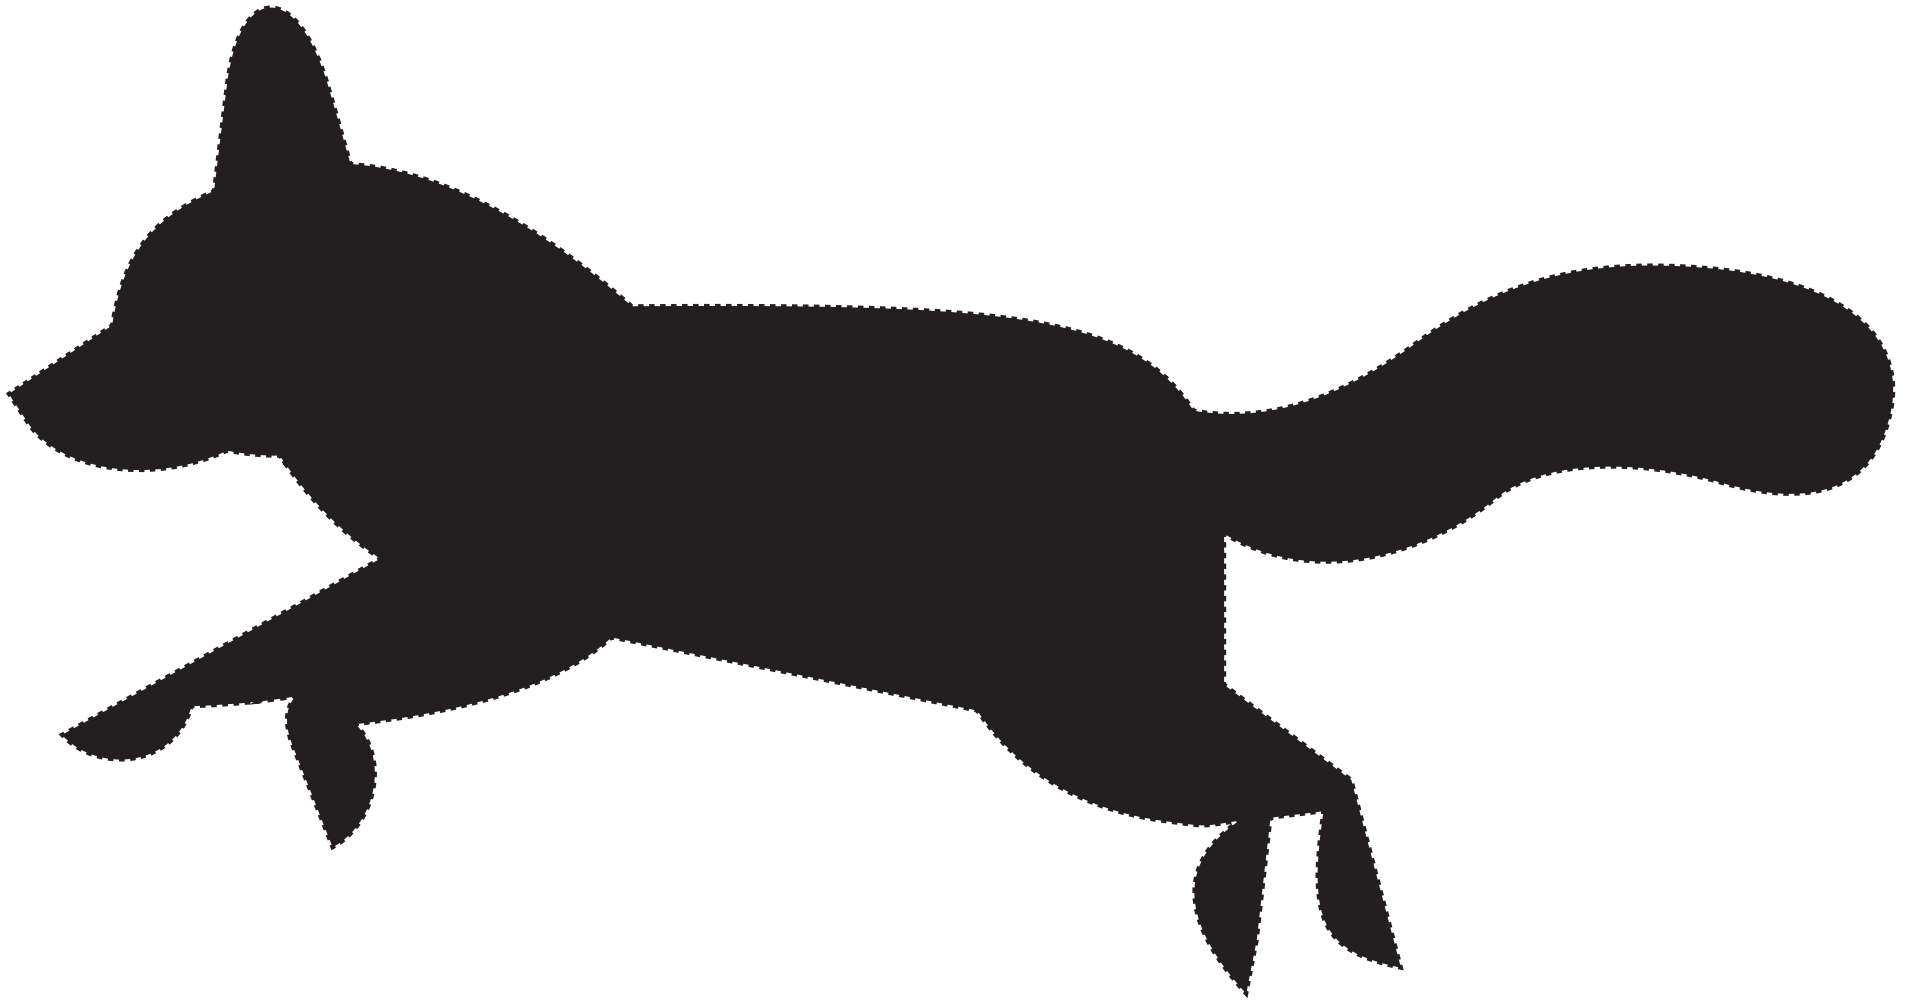

The Catalina Island fox is a true conservation success story. Once endangered, it has rebounded thanks to protection efforts by the Catalina Island Conservancy.

CARVING INSTRUCTIONS

- Print the template and tape it to your pumpkin.
- Trace the outline by poking small holes along the lines with a toothpick.
- Cut carefully with a small serrated knife, starting from the center and working outward.
- Take your time on fine details.
- Place a battery-operated tea light inside and enjoy your glowing Catalina Island fox!
